Our great losses

Article written by Joe Unis M.D., President of the Maloof Foundation

Spring came late to us this year. Our May was characterized by two catastrophic losses. The first was the loss of our ebullient energetic dynamo of an Executive Director, Rosanne Maloof Anderson to cancer. We all loved her and were still mourning her loss when tragedy struck again.

Sam was diagnosed with a terminal illness and failed quickly. He died May 21st at the age of 93. We had deluded ourselves into thinking that Sam was ageless and indestructible. We had hoped that he would always be there.

Sam would never acknowledge that he was going to die. This
